

ECS meeting
Bad Tölz
April 3rd-5th 2017

Program

Monday, April 3
Start	End
13:00	14:00	Lunch
14:00	16:30	Stupid Question Talks
16:30	17:10	Error Growth - Tobias Selz
17:10	18:00	"Speed Dating"
Tuesday, April 4
Start	End
09:00	11:30	Career possibilities:
09:00	09:45	Peter Miesen (Munich Re, Geo Risks)
09:45	10:30	Julia Keller (WMO)
10:30	10:45	Coffee break
10:45	11:30	Hella Garny (DLR)
11:30	12:00	Statistical significance - Sebastian Lerch
12:00	13:00	Lunch
13:00	14:30	Data Assimilation - Martin Weissmann
14:30	15:00	Simple statistical models/regression - Peter Vogel
15:00	18:30	Hike to the Sommerrodlbahn (summer toboggan run) on Blomberg
18:30	Open end	Dinner and visit of a brewery or distillery
Wednesday, April 5
Start	End
09:00	11:00	Workshop on Reproducibility: Why it is important to have reproducible results and how that can be achieved
11:00	11:15	Coffee Break
11:15	12:45	Stupid Question Talks
12:45	13:15	Conclusions, feedback, discussion & plans/ideas for the next workshop

Notes:

- 1) At the last ECS meeting, it has been voted that a "stupid question talks" session should be included in the program. The talks are meant to last about 5 minutes per person.
- 2) For the "Speed Dating", prepare yourself to explain your work within 30 seconds.

General information

The ECS meeting will take place in Bad Tölz, in Kolberbräu (<http://www.kolberbraeu.de/>). Bad Tölz lies approximately 1 hour by train south of Munich.

